

Virtual exhibition held

The PDEA'S English Medium Primary School, was abuzz with excitement on December 12, as it was the day of their Art, Craft & Science Exhibition. It was also Sharadchandra Pawar's birthday. Among the activities held were: Essay writing, Drawing, Elocution, Musical instrument playing, letter writing, singing, PPT-making for teachers and a Rangoli competition. The PDEA Institute arranged a Sharda Vyakhyanmala and various speakers spoke on Cyber Crime Awareness, Teacher's Role in Society.

The objective of the exhibition was to bring forth the innate skills and hone the creative genius of the students. The exhibition pro-

Science and Art & craft virtual exhibition vided the right platform for the primary wing students to display the varied and beautiful articles prepared by them throughout this academic year. All the items on display were the handiwork of the students which were made from indigenous products. An oath of 'Each One Plant One' was taken and, saplings were planted by Bapusaheb Pathare, Mahandra Pathare, Surendra Pathare, Suman tai Pathare, Sanjila tai Pathare and all faculty principals Dr. Bhosale sir principal of B. Pharmacy, Adv. Kotwal principal of D. Pharmacy, Javeer, principal of Pathare Vidyalaya, Khandare Shilpa madam principal of PDEA'S English Medium Secondary School. The programme was arranged by principal Aruna Gulunjkar. Among the guest for were Prof. Rakesh Suryavanshi, the artist. He is known for his innovative painting techniques.